Marital Status: Married 2 daughters, 2 sons

American Citizen

Education:

B.A. University of Notre Dame, 1958

M.A. Yale University, 1960

Ph.D. Yale University, 1962
Dissertation title: "Lesniewski, Language, and Logic"
Advisor: Alan Ross Anderson
Other committee members: Frederic Fitch, Wilfrid Sellars

Secondary Schooling: Champaign High School, Champaign, IL

Military:

Two years (1962-64) U. S. Army; achieved rank of 1st Lieutenant

Previous Academic Positions:

Research Associate, Training Research Laboratory, Psychology Department, University of Illinois,
March-August 1964

Positions at SUNY/Buffalo:

Assistant Professor, September 1964-September 1969

Associate Professor, September 1969-June 1978

Professor, June 1978-

Chair of Philosophy Department, September 1994-August 2003, September 2007-August 2010

Societies and Professional Organizations:

American Philosophical Association, Eastern Division

Association for Symbolic Logic

Cognitive Science Society

Linguistic Society of America

Academic Honors:

Yale University, Graduate School:

Woodrow Wilson Fellowship, 1958-59

Wilson-University Fellowship, 1959-60

University Fellowship, 1960-61

McCormick Fellowship, 1961-62

Summer grants from State University of New York:

“The Development of Combinatory Logic to Provide a Basis for Representing and Analyzing Temporal Processes”, 1966

“Studies in Combinatory Logic with Discriminators”, 1970

“A Formalization of Combinatory Logic with Discriminators”, 1972

Publications

Textbooks:

Deductive Logic, A Programed Introduction, New Century: New York, 1969 (Prentice-Hall), 463 pages

The Principles of Deductive Logic, SUNY Press, 1987, 471 pages

Books:

Using Language: The Structures of Speech Acts, SUNY Press, 1984, 457 pages

Reconceiving Experience, A Solution to a Problem Inherited from Descartes, SUNY Press, 1996, 474 pages.
